COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION
UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiff Juan Berrio Hernandez brings this Class and Collective Action Complaint on behalf of himself and similarly situated co-workers against Brookstone Developers LLC, (collectively, “Defendants”) pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”), N.Y. Lab. Law § 650 et seq., as recently amended by the Wage Theft Prevention Act (“WTPA”), N.Y. Lab Law § 195(3), N.Y. Lab Law § 191, and related provisions from Title 12 of New York Codes, Rules and Regulations (“NYCRR”).

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This Class and Collective Action Complaint seeks to recover unpaid wages, overtime compensation, for Plaintiff and similarly situated co-workers who have been employed by Defendants to work in Brookstone Developers LLC for some or all the time period relevant to this action (the relevant time period being set by the federal and state claims' respective statutes of limitations).

2. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a construction worker in Brookstone Developers LLC in New York.

3. Brookstone Developers LLC is a New York Corporation with its headquarters at 5913 20th Ave Brooklyn, NY 11204.

4. At all relevant times, Plaintiff regularly work for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week without receiving appropriate overtime compensation for any of the hours that he worked.

5. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping as required by the FLSA and the NYLL.

6. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees.

7. Plaintiff now bring this Class and Collective Action on behalf of himself and other similarly situated individuals, for federal and state claims relating to unpaid wages, unpaid overtime wages, unpaid spread-of-hours wages, failure to maintain records pursuant to the Fair

Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”), N.Y. Lab. Law § 650 et seq., as recently amended by the Wage Theft Prevention Act (“WTPA”), N.Y. Lab Law § 195(3), and related provisions from Title 12 of New York Codes, Rules and Regulations (“NYCRR”).

8. In connection with the above-mentioned allegations and claims, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages as well as applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorney’s fees and costs.

9. Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as a collective action under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants, and as a putative class action under FRCP 23 with respect to the New York state law claims.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 USC §§1331, and 1337 and jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ state-law claims pursuant to 28 USC § 1367.

11. This Court also has jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ claims under the FLSA pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

12. This Court is empowered to issue a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 USC §§ 2201 and 2202.

13. Venue is proper in the Eastern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) because Corporate Defendants reside in this District, Plaintiff resides in this District, and because a substantial part of the events that are the subject of the litigation transpired in this District.

COLLECTIVE-WIDE FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiff brings his FLSA claims on behalf of himself and all similarly situated persons who work or have worked for Defendants on or after October 25th, 2016 who elect to opt-in to this action (the “FLSA Collective”).

15. All of the work that Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have performed has been assigned by Defendants and/or Defendants have been aware of all of the work that Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have performed.

16. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants have intentionally, willfully and repeatedly engaged in a pattern, practice and/or policy of violating the FLSA with respect to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective. This policy and pattern or practice includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Willfully failing to pay overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week;
- b. Willfully failing to keep records that satisfy statutory requirements.

17. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans of willfully failing and refusing to pay them the require overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.

18. The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of the other employees and Plaintiff, and the FLSA Collective all perform or performed the same primary duties.

19. Defendants are aware that FLSA required them to pay employees performing non-exempt duties, including Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective overtime premium for hours worked more than 40 hours per workweek.

20. The defendants' unlawful conduct has been widespread, repeated, and consistent.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

21. Plaintiff brings specific NYLL claims pursuant to FRCP 23 on behalf of all of the Defendants' employees who work or have worked for Defendants from October 25, 2016 and the date of final judgment in this matter ("the Class").

22. Excluded from the Class are, inter alia, Defendants' employees who will submit timely and otherwise proper requests for exclusion from the Class.

23. On information and belief, the size of the Class is roughly 45 individuals. Although the precise number is unknown, the facts on which the calculation of that number depends are presently within the sole control of the Defendants.

24. Common questions of law and fact exist as to the Class that predominates over any questions only affecting them individually and include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Whether Defendants violated Article 6 of the NYLL and the supporting NYS Department of Labor regulations;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to compensate the Class for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek;

- c. Whether Defendants misclassified Plaintiff and members of the Class as exempt;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to keep true and accurate time and pay records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the Class, and other records required by the NYLL;
- e. Whether Defendants' policy of failing to pay workers was instituted willfully or with reckless disregard of the law; and
- f. The nature and extent of class-wide injury and the measure of damages for those injuries.

25. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the Class's claims that he seeks to represent. Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class in New York State. Plaintiff and the Class enjoy the same NYLL rights to receive overtime; to be protected from unlawful deductions; to have legally sufficient record-keeping. Plaintiff and the Class have all sustained similar type of damages as a result of Defendants' non-compliance with the NYLL. Plaintiff and the Class have all been injured by virtue of Defendants under compensation of them or Defendants' failure to compensate them due to Defendants' common policies, practices and patterns of conduct.

26. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class's members. Plaintiff understand that as class representative he assumes a fiduciary responsibility to the class to represent its interests fairly and adequately. Plaintiff recognize that as class representative, he must represent and consider the interests of the class just as he would represent and consider his own interests. Plaintiff understand that in decisions regarding the conduct of the litigation and its possible settlement, he must not favor his interests over the Class's interests. Plaintiff recognizes that any resolution of a class action must be in the best interest of the Class. Plaintiff understands that to provide adequate representation; he must be informed of developments in litigation, cooperate with class counsel, and testify at deposition/trial. Plaintiff has retained counsel competent and experienced in complex class actions and employment litigation. There is no conflict between Plaintiff and the Class.

27. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation. The members of the Class have been damaged and are entitled to recovery as a result of Defendants' violation of the NYLL and its common and uniform policies, practices, and procedures. Although the relative damages suffered by individual members of the Class are not de minimis, such damages are minor compared to the expense and burden of individual prosecution of this litigation. For example, Class members lack the financial resources to conduct a thorough examination of Defendants' timekeeping and compensation practices and to prosecute vigorously a lawsuit against Defendants to recover such damages. In addition, class litigation is superior because it will obviate the need for unduly duplicative litigation that might result in inconsistent judgments about Defendants' practices.

28. This action is properly maintainable as a class action under FRCP 23(b)(3).

PARTIES

Plaintiff

29. Plaintiff Juan Berrio Hernandez, ("Plaintiff Berrio") is an adult individual residing in Brooklyn, NY. Plaintiff Berrio worked for Defendants for two(2) years. At all relevant times to this complaint, Plaintiff Berrio was employed by Defendants to work as a construction worker at their company located at 5913 20th Ave Brooklyn, NY 11204.

30. Plaintiff consent to be parties pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and bring these claims based upon the allegations herein as representative parties of a prospective class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and as representatives of the Proposed Class.

Defendants

31. Corporate Defendants have owned, operated and controlled Brookstone Developers LLC; at all times relevant to this complaint.

32. On information and belief, Brookstone Developers LLC is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

33. Upon information and belief, Brookstone Developers LLC, collectively has more than $500,000.00 in gross annual income for the years relevant to the instant action (independent of excise taxes).

34. On information and belief, the operations of Brookstone Developers LLC, individually and collectively implicate interstate commerce insofar as these Defendants rely heavily on products that has been transported across state lines.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

35. Defendants operate a business where the Plaintiff worked. At all relevant times, Brookstone Developers LLC:

- a) possess or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporations; possess or possessed an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, and control or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

36. Corporate Defendants act in the interest of themselves with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

37. At relevant times, each Corporate Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiffs' and other similarly situated employees' working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

38. Corporate Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, and are Plaintiffs' and all similarly situated individuals' employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

39. In the alternative, Corporate Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff and/or similarly situated individuals, as the corporate divisions between them are fictional.

40. At all relevant times, Corporate Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the FLSA, NYLL and other law.

41. Corporate Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services.

42. Corporate Defendants supervised Plaintiffs' work schedules and conditions of their employment.

43. Corporate Defendants also determined the rate and method of payment for Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

44. Corporate Defendants also controlled and guided what limited recordkeeping took place, which Plaintiff contends is deficient pursuant to FLSA and NYLL requirements.

Individual Plaintiff Juan Berrio Hernandez

45. Plaintiff Juan Berrio Hernandez is a former employee of Defendants, primarily employed in performing the duties of a construction worker.

46. Plaintiff did not work at his convenience, having to report to work according to a schedule devised by Defendants. Furthermore, once scheduled for a shift, Plaintiff did not come and go at his pleasure but was controlled by Defendants.

47. Plaintiff is non-exempt under FLSA and the NYLL. Among other things, Plaintiff did not occupy what law would characterize as “professional,” “executive” or even “administrative” positions, as Plaintiffs’ employment for Defendants was physical labor. Plaintiff did not receive salary and these primary duties.

48. Plaintiff commences this action as a collective action under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and as a putative class action under FRCP 23 with respect to the New York state law claims.

49. Plaintiff Berrio worked with Defendants for about (2) two years. Specifically, he worked from August 2020 until September 23, 2022.

50. Plaintiff Berrio regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as cement that were produced outside of the State of New York.

51. Plaintiff Berrio work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

52. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Berrio worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

53. Plaintiff Berrio's work schedule was typically from Monday to Friday, from 6:00 A.M to 6:00 P.M, on Fridays from 6:00 AM until 12 P.M., Approximately 66 hours per week. Plaintiff wasn't required to punch in or out.

54. Plaintiff Berrio's payment was $19 per hour in 2020 and $20 per hour in 2021-2022, all paid by check. However, he was always paid $900 regardless of how many hours he worked.

55. Defendants never paid overtime for hours beyond (40) per week.

56. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Berrio with each payment of wages an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

57. Defendants never provided Plaintiff Berrio with written notice of his rate of pay, employer's regular payday, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

58. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded record-keeping requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

59. By employing this practice, Defendants avoided paying Plaintiff at the overtime rate of time and a half for most or all of his hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

60. Defendants failed to post require wage and hour posters and did not provide Plaintiff with statutorily require wage and hour records or statements of his pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws and to take advantage of Plaintiffs' relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

61. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff (and similarly situated individuals) worked and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly.

62. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and similarly situated employees with the wage statements and annual pay notices required by NYLL §§195(1) and 195(3).

63. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked, and the number of overtime hours worked, as require by NYLL §195(3).

64. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before October 25, 2016, of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employee's primary language containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular payday designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of FLSA Overtime/ /Recordkeeping Provisions)

65. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

66. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers (and employers of the putative FLSA Class members) within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff (and the FLSA class members), control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for his employment.

67. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

68. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

69. Defendants, in violation of the FLSA, failed to pay Plaintiff (and the FLSA Class members) overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207 (a)(1).

70. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff (and the FLSA Class members) overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

71. Defendants took unlawful deductions from Plaintiffs' earned wages and the FLSA Collective's earned wages.

72. Defendants failed to satisfy the FLSA's recordkeeping requirements.

73. Defendants acted willfully in their violations of the FLSA's requirements.

74. Plaintiff (and the FLSA Collective) was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Overtime/Unpaid Wages/ /Recordkeeping)

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

76. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rates and methods of any compensation in exchange for employment.

77. Defendants, in violation of the NYLL and associated rules and regulations, failed to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek, in violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 190 et seq. and supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor.

78. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff (and the Class members) overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

79. Plaintiff (and the Class Members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

80. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

81. Plaintiff (and the Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

82. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

83. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiffs' primary language), of his rate of pay, regular pay day, and such other information as require by NYLL §195(1).

84. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though set forth fully herein.

85. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with wage statements upon each payment of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

86. Defendants acted willfully in their violation of the above-described NYLL requirements.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants:

(a) Designating this action as a collective action and authorizing prompt issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all putative class members, apprising them of the pendency of this action, its nature, and their right to join, and permitting them promptly to file consents to be Plaintiff in the FLSA claims in this action;

(b) Certifying this case as a Class Action pursuant to FRCP 23 of the FRCP;

(c) Designating Plaintiff as Class Representatives, reasonable service awards for each Plaintiff, and his counsel of record as Class Counsel;

(d) Declaring that Defendants have violated the overtime wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiff and the FLSA class members;

(e) Declaring that Defendants have violated the recordkeeping requirements of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA with respect to Plaintiffs' and the FLSA class members' compensation, hours.
